

Art + Sol: Supporting the Next Generation of LA Artists - Annual Fund Drive to Raise $1 Million for Art Division

Art Division announces the launch of its first annual fundraising campaign to raise $1 million to provide arts education and support services to young adults.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, June 24, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Art Division, a non-profit organization dedicated to supporting and training under-served youth in the visual arts, is excited to announce the launch of its first annual fundraising campaign. The campaign aims to raise $1 million to continue providing vital arts education and support services to young adults aged 18-27.

A Month Long Arts Initiative

Art Division provides arts education for under-served young people, exposing them to art history, rich culture and the beauty of different art forms. I urge you to support Art Division.”

Jamie Lee Curtis

July 2024 will be packed with incredible arts events, each perfectly timed to coincide with Art Division’s fundraising campaign and offering a unique opportunity to experience the vibrant work of our talented community firsthand. Kicking off the month, a preview of the online Art Auction will be held at Craig Krull Gallery on July 7. This exclusive preview will feature extraordinary pieces from renowned artists and our gifted students, with bidding continuing online until July 28. On July 11, join us at the Mexican Consulate for an exhibition of prints made in our Sam

Francis Workshop, showcasing the mastery of both students and acclaimed artists. A special screening of the classic film, “Ahí está el detalle,” on July 12 at the Mexican Consulate highlights our film department's creativity and vision. Mid-month, art lovers can engage in insightful discussions with industry leaders Craig Krull (gallery owner), Shana Nys Dambrot (critic) and John Nava (artist). The grand finale on July 27-28 invites everyone to our Open House, Book Fair,

Ceramic Sale, and HEADS exhibition at the Art Division Gallery, offering an immersive experience of the diverse talents nurtured within our community.
