Readers will enjoy humorous anecdotes from Rand's first day in the classroom and heartwarming stories like the transformative event that changed a student's life. The book also shares personal tales, including Rand's near acquisition of the rights to Rubik's Cube and his hilarious interview which led to his appearance on Wheel of Fortune.

Rand's narrative has been praised for its emotional honesty and immersive quality. "I felt as if I was not reading a book but that you were talking directly to me," remarked one reader.

Ken's distinguished career includes teaching at a variety of levels, including junior high, high school, and college. At Hartnell College in Salinas, California, he earned multiple 'Teacher of the Year' awards and was recognized as one of the top 100 teachers in the United States. Rand continues to impact lives through nationwide speaking engagements.

In addition to One Student at a Time, Rand co-authored Second Chances: From Surviving to Thriving and recently completed his sequel to his memoir titled, One Teacher at a Time: Teach-Inspire-Change. His upcoming book, A Time Like No Other, is eagerly awaited by readers.

One Student at a Time was inspired by Rand's sister-in-law, who, after reading Teacher Man by Frank McCourt, encouraged him to document his rich teaching experiences. The memoir emphasizes that every day offers an opportunity to make a difference in someone else's life and that teaching and life are continuous learning experiences.
