NEK is proud to announce the launch of a wholesale flooring business under its existing umbrella. NEK has secured favorable pricing for various engineered flooring options, enabling it to compete with large name-brand box stores by keeping overhead costs streamlined and passing these bulk savings onto the customer. Graiver Homes Construction LLC, led by CEO, Loni Graiver, has executed an agreement with NEK to supply his current active residential developments with flooring options sourced by NEK. This agreement further solidifies VizConnect's successful integration of vertical business channels with strategic partners, fostering further growth in revenue opportunities.

“We partnered with VizConnect for two fundamental reasons; first, because VizConnect offers outstanding business resources in support of our continued growth, and second, we believe that VizConnect will prove to be a valuable long-term partner as it executes its Strategic Business Roadmap. We believe in VizConnect’s Vision,” stated Shannon Croteau, Co-owner of NEK.
