announced today that Adventist

Health, a prominent nonprofit integrated health system, has chosen its comprehensive population health management platform, Bridge, to further their efforts in value-based care across the diverse range of rural and urban communities they serve.

“We are thrilled to embark on this partnership with Adventist Health,” said Pranam Ben, Founder and CEO of The Garage. “Bridge is designed to address the evolving needs of healthcare organizations and provides them with comprehensive tools needed to further their mission that goes beyond what is typically available in the healthcare market. We look forward to helping them further deliver on their mission and empower them in the communities they serve.”

Adventist Health spans over 440 care sites in more than 100 communities on the West Coast and Hawaii and has a core mission of “Living God’s love by inspiring health, wholeness, and hope.” With this strategic partnership, Adventist Health will have the actionable insights provided by Bridge needed to further transform the healthcare landscape, allowing them to provide more accessible and affordable care.

Adventist Health chose Bridge due to its unparalleled capabilities compared to alternative solutions. With its holistic approach, it integrates advanced analytics, care coordination tools, risk and performance management, and patient engagement to drive positive outcomes and optimize resource utilization. “When searching for solutions, it became evident that The Garage’s platform, Bridge, stands out as the ideal solution to support our value-based care initiatives. We look forward to partnering with The Garage and furthering our mission while effectively providing compassionate, high-quality care,” states Regina Berman, RN, MA, Value-Based Care Executive at Adventist Health.
