

Roger Knecht Features as the Leading Business Coach to Follow in 2024

How Roger Knecht, President of Universal Accounting Center (UAC), is Leading the Charge in Accounting and Coaching?

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, UNITED STATES, June 26, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Roger Knecht, President of Universal Accounting Center (UAC), has recently been featured on the cover of Exeleon Magazine's "Leading Business Coaches to Follow in 2024" issue. This recognition highlights Roger's significant contributions to the fields of accounting and coaching, underscoring his innovative methods and impactful leadership.

Roger Knecht, who has a distinguished background in marketing, management, and accounting, has played a pivotal role in elevating UAC to a top-tier institution. His leadership has not only expanded the institution's reach but also garnered numerous accolades, including recognition from Inc 500 and Utah 100. UAC has been supporting accounting professionals for over four decades, offering a comprehensive range of training, certifications, and coaching designed to enhance their careers.

The image shows the front cover of the June 2024 issue of Exeleon Magazine. The title 'exeleon' is at the top in large white letters, with 'JUNE 2024' and 'ISSUE - 20' in smaller text. A large photo of Roger Knecht, a man with a beard and blue suit, is the central focus. To his left, there's a sidebar with 'EXELEON OUTLOOK' and 'EXELEON SPOTLIGHT' sections. The main headline on the right reads 'Mastering Success in Accounting and Coaching'. Below the photo, the name 'Roger Knecht' is prominently displayed in large white letters. The overall design is professional and modern.

COACHES
TO FOLLOW

Central to Roger's coaching philosophy is the idea that a coach should act as a facilitator, helping individuals reach their goals more efficiently. He believes that great coaches ask the right questions and hold individuals accountable, uncovering hidden motivations and setting clear, achievable goals. Roger Knecht's structured process, known as "Engage & Manifest," emphasizes reverse-engineering goals to create clear action plans.

In his role at UAC, Roger integrates his coaching methods to ensure clients have the financial knowledge to run their businesses effectively, increase revenue, improve profit margins, and build intrinsic business value. This holistic approach equips clients not only with technical skills but also with strategic insights and the motivation necessary for long-term success.

Daryl Yeung, Editor in Chief of Exeleon Magazine, mentioned 'Roger Knecht epitomizes the qualities of a transformative leader and coach. His innovative approach to accounting education and his commitment to empowering professionals are truly inspiring. We are extremely pleased to showcase his story and highlight his significant contributions to the industry in our latest issue."
