The band has also unveiled a music video for their latest single, "Down No More," a joyful, breezy, acoustic-driven, country-pop leaning track that showcases their versatility and knack for storytelling. "Down No More' is a song we co-wrote with Dylan Altman (Tim McGraw, Jason Aldean) during a trip to Nashville," Robert Jon adds. "This song reveals that you can be down on yourself or down on your luck but there's always a bright side and you don't have to be down no more."

"Red Moon Rising is a new chapter for Robert Jon & The Wreck," shares frontman Robert Jon. "We as a band are very excited for its release and for everyone to hear it! We want to thank Kevin Shirley, all the co-writers on this record, and everyone at Journeyman Records for helping us in making this record."

Red Moon Rising has already garnered critical acclaim. Planet Mosh praised it as "groundbreaking" and awarded it 5 stars, highlighting the band's consistent delivery of innovative music since their formation in 2011, while Vintage Rock noted that "the album captures the essence of the band's transformative years, setting a new course for their musical odyssey."

Red Moon Rising features a blend of powerful storytelling and diverse musical influences, with standout tracks such as "Ballad of A Broken Hearted Man," which has hit over 1 million views on YouTube, "Give Love," "Dragging Me Down," and "Worried Mind" showcasing the band's ability to connect deeply with their audience. With its dynamic range and emotional depth, Red Moon Rising sets a new standard for the Southern rock genre.

To celebrate the album release, Robert Jon & The Wreck graciously donated autographed signs from their "Give Love" music video to support Joe Bonamassa's Keeping the Blues Alive Foundation (KTBA), a 501(c)(3) non-profit, which funds music education programs in schools. The signed posters featured in the music video, packaged with their newest album, is the perfect gift for fans to add to their music collection! All proceeds raised from the "Give Love" auction will go directly to KTBA. The auction is live now and will end on Monday, July 8 at 11:59pm EST. BID HERE! <https://go.rallyup.com/givelove>

Since their debut in 2011, Robert Jon & The Wreck have captivated audiences worldwide, turning the Southern rock sound on its head and making it distinctly their own. With Robert Jon Burrison's lead vocals and guitar, Andrew Espantman on drums and vocals, Henry James Schneekluth's lead guitar and vocals, Warren Murrell on bass, and Jake Abernathie on keyboards, the band's synergy on stage is undeniable. As they embark on this next phase with Red Moon Rising, they invite both longtime followers and new listeners to join in the celebration of their ongoing evolution and the indomitable spirit of rock 'n' roll.

Robert Jon & The Wreck are currently on an expansive tour across Europe, bringing their dynamic live performances to fans around the world. Known for their electrifying stage presence and incredible synergy, their live concerts are immersive experiences filled with high-energy performances, soulful guitar solos, and powerful vocal harmonies. About Journeyman Records

Journeyman, the newest endeavor between Joe Bonamassa and his long-time manager Roy Weisman, is a vertically integrated music management, concert promotion and marketing company that builds awareness for great live artists worldwide. After years of perfecting strategies while building Joe Bonamassa's career, the company will utilize the same savvy tactics which allowed them to overcome industry barriers that typically held back artists from achieving success. Journeyman provides the infrastructure to take an artist from its infancy, to record music and tour without having to deal with the typical resistance of “gatekeepers” who don’t believe or support emerging acts. Bonamassa has been keen on using his experience to pay it forward to help other artists navigate the murky industry waters. Consequently, Journeyman sets itself apart in this way as being the true market maker for their artists.
