

BugMD Announces Charitable Partnership With Austin Pets Alive!, Supporting Vulnerable Animals in Need

BugMD partners with Austin Pets Alive!, supporting their No Kill mission to save at-risk animals through innovative programs and education.

SANTA ANA, CA, UNITED STATES, June 28, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The team at BugMD believes in the importance of giving back to the community and supporting organizations that make a difference. By partnering with Austin Pets Alive!, BugMD aims to help the organization continue its mission of providing innovative programs to save animals most at risk for euthanasia and promote the No Kill movement.

"We are thrilled to support Austin Pets Alive! and their unwavering commitment to eliminating the killing of companion animals in the community," said Paul Kraus, COO of BugMD. "This partnership aligns perfectly with our values, and we hope that our contribution will help Austin Pets Alive! continue to provide the resources, education, and programs needed to save lives and promote the No Kill movement."

Austin Pets Alive! has been instrumental in transforming Austin into the largest No Kill city in the United States. The organization develops groundbreaking programs to address the specific needs of vulnerable animal populations, while also focusing on community outreach and education to promote responsible pet ownership and reduce pet homelessness. The organization's success in reducing Austin's kill rate from 87% in 2008 to a save rate of 97% today serves as a model for other communities looking to achieve No Kill status.

The Impact of BugMD's Partnership on Austin Pets Alive!:

essential resources, education, and programs needed to eliminate the killing of companion animals. The funds will support the organization's various initiatives, including:

- Innovative lifesaving programs for vulnerable animal populations
- Community outreach and education to promote responsible pet ownership and adoption
- Collaboration with local government and animal welfare organizations to maintain No Kill policies
- Sharing best practices nationwide through American Pets Alive! to help other communities achieve No Kill status

This contribution will enhance Austin Pets Alive!'s capacity to save lives, educate the public, and drive the No Kill movement forward. The partnership will also help the organization maintain its groundbreaking programs and continue to serve as a model for other communities striving to eliminate the killing of companion animals.

BugMD's Commitment to Corporate Social Responsibility:

BugMD's partnership with Austin Pets Alive! exemplifies the company's dedication to corporate social responsibility. By regularly partnering with non-profit organizations and charities, BugMD strives to create a better world beyond providing effective and family-friendly pest control solutions.

The company's commitment to giving back to the community is rooted in its core values of compassion, integrity, and social responsibility. BugMD believes that by supporting organizations like Austin Pets Alive!, they can make a lasting, positive impact on the lives of animals and the communities they serve.

What This Means For The Future:

BugMD's charitable contribution to Austin Pets Alive! underscores the company's commitment to supporting the elimination of companion animal euthanasia. By collaborating with this pioneering animal shelter organization, BugMD aims to raise awareness about the importance of the No Kill movement and inspire others to get involved in making a difference.

Through its philanthropic efforts, BugMD hopes to create a lasting, positive impact on the lives of animals and the communities they serve. The company's dedication to corporate social responsibility serves as an example for other businesses to follow, demonstrating that success can be achieved while also making a positive difference in the world.
