"I believe that magic can break language barriers and my dream is to share my passion for Jesus Christ with the world through my magic acts," says Rosen. "Seeing people come to faith and experience the love of God is the greatest reward. It's incredible to witness the transformation that occurs when someone sees the gospel in a new light. My goal is to reach as many people as possible, showing them that faith and creativity can work hand in hand to reveal the profound truths of the Christian faith."

In addition to his live shows, Rosen has developed a unique gospel tool known as the "Preachers Deck." This set of cards is designed to help churches share the gospel in an engaging and interactive manner and has been praised for its creativity and effectiveness in outreach efforts.

Rosen is also currently working on new material and writing a new gospel show based on his own personal encounters. However, to bring these ideas to life, he will need support to proceed. He plans to collaborate with theaters and musicians to create a truly unique and impactful performance.

To expand his reach and continue his mission, Rosen is seeking support from churches, theaters, and individual supporters. Donations and
