possibilities to express their unique style on their special day. Each gown is meticulously crafted to ensure not they are not just a dress but a cherished memory that transcends time.

This collection highlights a range of unique features and styles tailored to the discerning bride. Let's explore some of the standout gowns in Calla Blanche's Fall 2024 lineup:

Hera: Elegance and Versatility

Hera is designed for the bride who desires both grandeur and adaptability. This gown features a sleek sheath silhouette adorned with shimmering sequins and intricate lace, embodying elegance. The detachable overskirt adds an element of versatility, allowing brides to transition seamlessly from ceremony to reception. With its delicate spaghetti straps and alluring low back, Hera combines sophistication and sensuality in one stunning package.

Meriam: Bold and Beautiful

For brides looking to make a statement, Meriam offers a captivating blend of boldness and beauty. This gown's backless design and mermaid silhouette accentuate the bride's curves, while the halter neckline adds a contemporary and modest edge. Intricate floral lace and sparkling beadwork create a dazzling effect, making Meriam a perfect choice for brides who want to turn heads and make a lasting impression.

Cove: Bohemian Whimsy

Cove is ideal for brides who seek a touch of bohemian romance. Inspired by the serene beauty of coastal landscapes, this A-line dress features ethereal bell sleeves that flutter like butterfly wings. The intricate lacework tells a story of enchantment, and the gown is available in both classic ivory and a playful peach hue. Cove is perfect for beachside ceremonies or woodland celebrations, offering a whimsical charm that is both chic and enchanting.

Hollyn: Chic and Contemporary
