The response has been overwhelming from customers who are thrilled to hear we offer an integrated lighting option.”

Adam Rought, CEO

Adam Rought, CEO of Green Shield Deck Builders, commented on why the decision was made to carry a new lighted rail option. "We are constantly seeking innovative features and materials to further enhance someone's outdoor experience. The response has been overwhelming from customers who are thrilled to hear we offer an integrated lighting option."

Key Features of Green Shield's LED Lighted Railing:

Remote-Controlled Convenience: Easily controlled deck lighting in three colors using a remote, ensuring hassle-free operation.

Integrated Design: The lighting is seamlessly integrated into the railing, maintaining the clean and elegant look of the deck.

Extended Usability: Deck usage is extended well into the evening hours, enhancing the overall outdoor living experience.

Green Shield Deck Builders' new LED lighted railing is a testament to the company's dedication to combining functionality with aesthetics. The product not only adds value, but also elevates the ambiance, making evenings on the deck truly magical.
