Eighty Seven Park Miami Beach

Designed by renowned architect Renzo Piano, whose illustrious career spans iconic landmarks like the Centre Georges Pompidou and London's the Shard, Eighty Seven Park Miami epitomizes a seamless blend of artistry, functionality, and environmental consciousness. Piano's vision for this project reflects his deep connection to the sea and affinity for Miami's vibrant coastal lifestyle.

Miami Beach's unique atmosphere, where land meets sea in a direct and vibrant dialogue, inspired the design philosophy of Eighty Seven Park.”

Esther Santamaria

Each of the seventy residences at Eighty Seven Park is a testament to modern luxury, offering panoramic views and expansive living spaces that merge seamlessly with the outdoors. The architecture emphasizes clean lines and natural materials, fostering a sense of tranquility and connection to the surrounding environment.

Situated on the northern edge of Miami Beach, Eighty Seven Park provides residents with unparalleled access to both urban amenities and serene natural landscapes. The project represents a new standard in luxury living, appealing to those who seek a harmonious balance between sophisticated design and the allure of coastal living.
