"I am incredibly excited to share this musical journey with everyone," says Krimries. "The songs on this album are very personal to me, and I hope they inspire and uplift listeners in their own faith journeys."

Additionally, Krimries is committed to making a positive impact through his music. All royalties from the song "Jesus Weeps" will be donated to aid agencies in Palestine, supporting those in need and promoting peace and relief efforts.

Fans and new listeners alike can now stream or download the album and the new single on their preferred music platforms.
