

USA Pickleball Announces Select Series in Five Regional Locations for Members to Compete Between July and October

Inaugural Select Series invites players to hone their skills on the court

SCOTTSDALE, ARIZONA, UNITED STATES, July 1, 2024 / EINPresswire.com/ -- USA Pickleball, the National Governing Body for the sport of pickleball in the U.S., announced five regional events as part of the inaugural 2024 USA Pickleball Select Series. Competitions will take place between July and October in Virginia, Alabama, California, New Jersey and Colorado.

"We're excited to offer the USA Pickleball Select Series for our members to continue to hone their tournament skills in five great locations," said Mike Nealy, CEO of USA Pickleball. "Whether it's a player's first tournament or their third, we want to ensure our members have the opportunity to compete in quality events to better their pickleball skills."

Select Series will feature competition in a Round Robin format where players or teams compete with the top players advancing to the next round. These USA Pickleball sanctioned events will focus on competitive divisions tailored to an entry skill level.

Events are geared toward player experience with the goal of tying the sport of pickleball into each of the following five regions:
