

Japan Destination Management Company TokudAw Inc partners with Nagano Alpico Holdings for rural revitalization

TOKYO, JAPAN, July 1, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The JAPAN ALPS GREEN LEADERS PROGRAM 2024 (JAGLP 2024) originated from discussions between ASEAN-Japan Office and embassy officials from four ASEAN countries (Singapore, Philippines, Laos, Myanmar) during their visit to the Alpico Group in March 2024. It was proposed to hold annual winter meetings in Matsumoto regarding regional revitalization of the Japanese Alps area and sustainable management. From July 9th-11th 2024, TokudAw Inc., and Alpico Holdings will kickstart a pre-meeting for the annual winter meeting which include inspections in Matsumoto City and Hakuba, accompanied by entrepreneurs from ASEAN and Japan. Visits and discussions are scheduled at Seiko Epson Corporation, Shinshu University, and Alpico Holdings Co., Ltd. A networking session with Hakuba Mayor Maruyama Toshiro and ASEAN-Japan Center Secretary General Hirayabashi Kunihiko is also scheduled on 11th July at the Hakuba Village Hall.

Comment from Wanping Aw, Managing Director of TokudAw Inc.,
We are honoured to announce our participation in the organizing committee for JAGLP 2024 and future editions. Our company was founded with the mission to facilitate understanding and nurture relationships between Japanese and international individuals and corporations. We eagerly anticipate the opportunities for engagement and inspiration that this program will bring. This program is unique as we are allowing entrepreneurs from ASEAN countries and Japan network, interact and learn with various stakeholders, and companies across Nagano. We hope that this program can help enhance personal growth and that of our businesses in our ASEAN-Japan community. Ultimately, our goal is to contribute to greater happiness in our global community.
