Managing Attorney Dean E. Dennis adds, "We are so proud to have such talented and dedicated attorneys at our firm. Erika and Chase's inclusion for the second consecutive year exemplifies the bright path they will continue to forge in the field of law."

Erika practices law in the areas of labor and employment and general civil litigation. Prior to joining the firm, she clerked for the United States District Court in the Central District of California where she worked for numerous District Court Judges and drafted orders on a wide range of motions.

Chase represents clients in a variety of disputes. His experience representing and advising an array of corporate and individual clients has resulted in cost-effective litigation aimed at attaining favorable judgments. Outside of his law practice, Chase has served as the Chair and Vice Chair of the Armed Forces Committee of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, which provides pro-bono legal services and assistance to active-duty military members, Veterans, and their families.

As Lawdragon emphasizes the essential diversity, talent, and determination embodied by the new generation of legal leaders; Erika and Chase's recognition represents their commitment to these values and their standing as key players in shaping the future of law.
