Mohammad Ali Shahbaz established The Mister Legacy in London in 2023, aiming to offer unique experiences within the luxury domain. His venture includes a privately owned caviar farm and one of East Persia's most historic saffron farms, reinforcing his dedication to authenticity and high-quality production.

Le Trésor Impérial operates from the shores of the Caspian Sea, where it utilizes both traditional and modern methods to produce exclusive purebred sturgeon caviar. This commitment to pure, high-quality production distinguishes Le Trésor Impérial in a market flooded with less exclusive offerings.

The brand extends its luxury services by collaborating with renowned jewelers globally to hold exclusive jewelry auctions featuring unique in-house designs. These pieces reflect the sophisticated and luxurious essence of the brand, aiming to cater to a discerning clientele.

Mohammad Ali Shahbaz commented on the vision behind Le Trésor Impérial, stating, "Our goal is to blend the luxury of fine caviar with the artistry of bespoke jewelry, providing a new definition of luxury to our esteemed clients and introducing a unique model of personal luxury experiences."

The strategic direction of The Mister Legacy and Le Trésor Impérial reflects a deep understanding of the luxury market's dynamics and a commitment to setting new standards within the industry.

Looking forward, Le Trésor Impérial plans to expand its reach to other major luxury markets including Paris and New York. Moreover, the brand aims to establish an in-house design school to foster upcoming talents in luxury craftsmanship.

Feedback from the market has been overwhelmingly positive, with early customers and top chefs praising the quality and exclusivity of Le Trésor Impérial's offerings. A renowned Geneva-based jewelry designer noted, "The commitment to quality and detail in Le Trésor Impérial's caviar matches our high standards in jewelry craftsmanship, making their products truly exceptional."
