Trained on Founder Rod Turner's Extensive Expertise in Capital Raising, RodBot Will Provide Entrepreneurs Guidance In Navigating Today's World of Capital Raises

SAN DIEGO, CA, USA, July 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Manhattan Street Capital today unveiled the Beta launch of RodBot, an innovative AI chatbot designed to guide businesses through the complex landscape of capital raising. RodBot leverages the extensive knowledge and expertise of Manhattan Street Capital CEO and Founder Rod Turner to provide invaluable insights and advice to companies seeking to raise capital.

RodBot is an AI-driven advisor built upon hundreds of blogs, FAQs, and webinars created by Turner. It offers detailed and up-to-date information on various capital-raising methods, including Regulation A+ (Reg A+), Regulation D (Reg D), and Regulation S (Reg S). By interacting with RodBot, businesses can determine the suitability of Reg A+ for their needs and explore other potential capital-raising strategies.

"RodBot is an extension of my commitment to helping companies navigate the intricacies of the capital markets," said Rod Turner. "Our AI chatbot delivers the depth of my experience and insights in an accessible and convenient format, empowering companies to make informed decisions about their capital-raising and public offering strategies."

Key features of RodBot include:

- Comprehensive Knowledge Base: Access insights derived from Rod Turner's extensive content library.
