With a unique hands-on approach, Great Flight distinguishes itself from other charter companies.

Great Flight prioritizes client comfort, confidence, and safety at every step, including last-minute charters. The owners and management personally visit flights departing from PBI and surrounding airports, demonstrating their commitment to exceptional service and attention to detail.

we aim to create a comfortable and luxurious experience for every passenger”

Adam Norwitch, Owner

In addition to the personalized service, Great Flight offers special catering options for clients. Most catering requests are complimentary, providing exceptional experiences without additional expense. Each catering service includes a hand-written message to show appreciation to the client, enhancing the overall flying experience.

"At Great Flight, our team understands the importance of making clients feel valued," said Adam Norwitch, Owner of Great Flight. "By personally overseeing each flight and providing special catering with personalized messages, we aim to create a comfortable and luxurious experience for every passenger."

Whether flying for business or leisure, Great Flight is dedicated to providing a superior travel experience. For more information about Great Flight and to book a private charter to or from South Florida, visit GreatFlight.com.
