Some of the key facts of the Adrenocortical Carcinoma Market Report:

The Adrenocortical Carcinoma market size was valued ~21 million in 2020 and is anticipated to grow with a significant CAGR during the study period (2020-2034)

In 2023, the United States had the largest number of new ACC cases among Western nations, making up nearly 27% of the total cases in the 7MM. The combined total for the EU4 and the UK represented about 53% of the cases in the 7MM, while Japan accounted for just 20% of the overall cases.

According to DelveInsight's assessment in 2023, there were 1,245 new cases of Adrenocortical Carcinoma (ACC) in the 7MM. These cases are expected to see an upward trend with a projected CAGR during the forecast period from 2024 to 2034.

In 2023, 40% of males and 60% of females in the 7MM had Adrenocortical Carcinoma (ACC). This indicates a lower incidence of ACC in males compared to females.

In 2023, EU4 and the UK reported 658 incident cases of ACC. These numbers are anticipated to rise in the coming years due to improved diagnostic capabilities and heightened disease awareness.

In 2023, Japan recorded 247 incident cases of ACC. DelveInsight projects that by 2034, the total number of cases in Japan is expected to decline due to the decreasing population and other factors.

According to DelveInsight's analysis, incident cases of ACC were categorized into four age groups: <20 years, 20–40 years, 41–60 years, and >60 years. In the 7MM in 2023, the highest number of cases occurred in the 41–60 years age group, followed by those aged >60 years, 20–40 years, and <20 years.
