celebrity appearances, panel discussions, Q&A sessions, and a bustling marketplace of vendors. This convention offers a fantastic opportunity for fans to dive deep into their favorite fandoms and connect with fellow enthusiasts. This convention will have an epic costume contest with fantastic prizes for the winners. Participants can get their costumes ready and show off their creativity and love for their favorite characters.

Tidewater Conventions INC, a renowned producer of popular pop culture and horror conventions, proudly announces the return of Maryland Pop and Horror Con in 2025. Following a successful run in 2023, Tidewater Horror Convention is also set to return from September 13-15, 2024, at the Tidewater Convention Center. Additionally, Tidewater Conventions INC is excited to launch the Georgia Pop and Horror Con, spearheaded by Billy Mittlestadt and Brian Lancaster.

"We are thrilled to bring back the Georgia Pop and Horror Con in August 2024. This event has the potential to become a staple in the pop culture and horror community, and we are excited to continue providing a platform for fans to come together and celebrate their passions," said Billy Mittlestadt.

This year's convention features a lineup of panel discussions and celebrity guests designed to thrill and entertain attendees. Notably, the panel discussions and Q&A sessions will be hosted by the popular horror, Halloween, and haunted attractions podcast, "Yup, That's Scary."

Hosted by the unapologetic and in-your-face Willie May, "Yup, That's Scary" is far from your typical Halloween horror podcast. Focusing on the latest insider news and happenings in the horror world, this podcast is a must-listen for horror fans. Attendees of the Georgia Pop and Horror Con will have the chance to experience the podcast live, with co-host, Krest, and horror and film festival director Shannon Ford Thompson.

"Being invited to host the Georgia Pop and Horror Con's Celebrity Panels and Q&As, the 'Yup, That's Scary' team and I are dedicated to bringing something new and exciting to the show. We aim to make this Con the premier horror event in the West Georgia area. More horror conventions in Georgia are needed," said Willie May.

The panel discussions and Q&A sessions will cover a wide range of topics, from celebrity interviews to behind-the-scenes insights
