Prodly Excels in G2 Summer 2024 Reports

Leading DevOps Platform Earns Best Estimated ROI and Easiest Setup

PALO ALTO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, July 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Prodly, the leading DevOps platform for low-code Salesforce apps, has earned significant recognition in the G2 Summer 2024 Reports, securing the Best Estimated ROI and Easiest Setup badges, as well as 47 others.

Prodly was awarded the Best Estimated ROI badge in the DevOps Platform Implementation Index. This distinction highlights Prodly's efficient setup process and user-friendly interface that allows businesses to start generating revenue significantly faster than with competing solutions. The streamlined implementation process ensures an accelerated transition from deployment to operation, which maximizes productivity and reduces downtime.

Prodly also earned the Easiest Setup badge in the DevOps platform category. With a go-live time that's approximately 50% shorter than the industry average, Prodly allows businesses to rapidly integrate and utilize its platform, reducing the time required to achieve operational readiness. In the Continuous Integration Usability Index (Enterprise), Prodly earned top marks for Easiest Administration and, for the second consecutive time, Best Usability.
