

University Games Points Out It's New Game: Give 'Em The Finger

This game title grabs attention

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, UNITED STATES, July 11, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Call it as it is. University Games flips off the formalities and names its new game for its primary play element. Give 'Em The Finger ($19.99, for 3 or more players, ages 8+) is the fun, quick-thinking new family trivia game that asks players to quickly point to the right answer.

"It's a sassy title game with an easy family fun play pattern. Give 'Em The Finger grabs your attention and points to one of our best new family board games this year," Craig Hendrickson, SVP Product Development at University Games, explained.

To play Give 'Em The Finger, one player reads a question, then all players use their Finger Pointers to try to find the answer on the board in front of them. The first person to point to the answer wins the round. It's not so easy though. The two-sided boards contain tricky shapes, colors, fonts and point sizes, which add a double-take mental challenge to point to the right answer quickly.

Give 'Em The Finger joins other University Games popular titles, including Smart Ass, Drunk Ass, Judge Your Friends, Bob Moog's Dad Jokes, Dog Ate My Homework, Who Took My Nuts?, Ultimate Couple's Quiz Game, and the assortment of Murder Mystery Party Games and Case Files.
