On Tuesday, July 30, 2024, representatives from Tyler Mann Injury Law and HEALS, Inc. will visit the Academy Sports + Outdoors location located at 2900 Memorial Parkway SW in Huntsville to personally select and purchase the donated shoes. HEALS, Inc. will then ensure these new shoes reach local children in need before the school year begins.

"Don't you remember the thrill of a brand-new pair of shoes for a new school year? We can help local children experience that same joy and confidence as they start on their new academic journey," said Tyler Mann, founder of Tyler Mann Injury Law. "This back-to-school shoe drive is a community effort. Participation is easy. Let's come together and make a positive difference in a child's life."

HEALS, Inc. will distribute the shoes and ensure they reach the local youth who need them most. The organization's mission to deliver accessible, high-quality primary healthcare for children through collaborative efforts with the school system complements the shoe drive initiative, promoting the overall well-being of young individuals.

Over the past three years, the Tyler Mann Injury Law Back-to-School Shoe

Drive, in partnership with HEALS, Inc. and Academy Sports + Outdoors, has successfully provided more than 1,000 pairs of brand-new shoes to Huntsville-area children in need. This year's campaign aims to continue positively impacting the lives of local students.
