Provenonce, Inc. was co-founded in 2021 by Will O'Brien, a serial entrepreneur and angel investor who has been a key executive at unicorns BitGo and Big Fish Games, and a seed investor in multiple other large-scale successes. The company first launched NFT Oasis to give creators and artists a platform for sharing their talents in the metaverse. Having developed the technologies and methodologies for creating impactful, human-centric virtual experiences, the company has since shifted its focus from the creator economy to enabling brands and businesses to leverage these frontier technologies.

"Our journey from NFT Oasis to Provenonce Summits and now ProvenonceAI reflects our commitment to innovation and excellence," said Will O'Brien, CEO and co-founder of Provenonce, Inc. "We believe in the power of AI to transform industries and are excited to offer these groundbreaking solutions to our customers."

Provenonce has raised funding from a diverse and influential group of 34 investors, including Lemniscap, CitizenX, Delphi Ventures, and Tony Robbins' venture firm.

Provenonce Summits and ProvenonceAI are poised to revolutionize how businesses and communities interact with the metaverse, web3, and AI, setting new standards for virtual events and AI automation.
