Handyman Services is honored to announce its support for the Veteran Home Repair Program, an initiative dedicated to providing free home repair services to veterans in need.

Under the leadership of Eddie Andrews, also known as Edward Andrews and Eddy Andrews, the company is committed to giving back to those who have served the country by ensuring they have safe and well-maintained homes. The Veteran Home Repair Program offers a range of services, including plumbing, electrical, carpentry, and general maintenance, to veterans who may not have the resources to address these needs. Eddie Andrews Handyman Services is proud to contribute its expertise and resources to support this meaningful cause.

Supporting veteran home repairs is an honor and a way to give back to those who served.”

Eddy Andrews

“Supporting our veterans is a cause that is close to our hearts,” said Eddie Andrews. “We are grateful for their service and are committed to giving back by providing the home repair services they need to live comfortably and safely.”

Key aspects of the Veteran Home Repair Program include:

Free Services: Providing no-cost repair services to eligible veterans.

Comprehensive Repairs: Addressing a wide range of home repair needs.

Community Support: Collaborating with local organizations to identify and support veterans in need.

Eddie Andrews Handyman Services is dedicated to making a positive impact on the lives of veterans through the Veteran Home Repair Program. By offering free repair services, the company aims to express its gratitude and support for those who have served the nation.
