Fin+AI 2024 Conference: Day One Activities

The opening day of Fin+AI 2024 offers attendees a chance to delve into the future of finance on both a personal and industry-wide level. As exhibitor's setup, delegates are welcome to join any of the workshops. Fin+AI has some remaining workshop opportunities.

One of the featured workshops will leverage the Logictry AI platform to provide attendees with an AI IQ Assessment. This assessment will create a personalized learning path, ensuring attendees can optimize their knowledge about Artificial Intelligence. Many executives know AI is important, but lack the foundational knowledge to implement it effectively.

Empower yourself and your team with the knowledge to leverage AI for transformative results. Join consultant Hunter Menton from TheGrowthLab, and Logictry's Co-Founder, and Chief Logic Officer, Chris Fronda, on Wednesday afternoon, October 2nd in the Aqua Vista Ballrooms.

This AI IQ Assessment Workshop Bridges the Knowledge Gap:

- Assess your current AI knowledge and understanding of the technology.
- Receive a personalized learning path based on your needs and goals.
- Gain a strong grasp of core AI concepts before the conference begins.

In a separate session, another high-level workshop deep-dives into the world of faster payments. Money, The Gathering: The Game of Instant Payments will be led by industry experts Marcia Klingensmith, the Instant Payments Maven, and Jennifer Borchardt, CXO of JenAI Consulting.

Immerse yourself in the world of instant payments through an exciting role-playing game where you'll experience "a day in the life" of key players in the instant payments' ecosystem.

This One-of-a-Kind Experience Will Help You:

- Make strategic decisions about instant payments with confidence.
- See firsthand how instant payments are transforming businesses.
- Develop a vision for how instant payments can drive your organization's growth.
- Create a concrete plan to implement and scale instant payments in your organization.

Fin+AI 2024 officially kicks off Wednesday October 2nd, in South Florida with a Welcome Reception for all attendees. This opening night event, takes place from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM. The Le Méridien Hotel, Dania Beach, provides a casual atmosphere to connect with industry leaders and fellow attendees. Mingle poolside on the veranda, or enjoy the comfortable indoor venue - Le Méridien offers luxurious amenities perfect for an evening of networking.

As the sun sets, share ideas and forge new relationships at the intersection of the Fintech and AI. Guests will enjoy delicious cocktails and hors d'oeuvres while setting the stage for a dynamic and informative conference. All delegates, exhibitors, media, and speakers are welcome to attend this welcome celebration.
