

Celebrating 15 Years of Excellence: Prestige Economics Marks Its Milestone Anniversary

Celebrating 15 Years of Excellence, Prestige Economics Marked Its Milestone Anniversary with a Special Celebration in Austin, Texas

AUSTIN, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, July 11, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Prestige Economics, a leading economic consultancy and financial market forecasting firm, celebrated its 15th anniversary with a memorable party on 25 May 2024. The party brought together a wonderful mix of colleagues, clients, friends, and family. As we reflect on this significant milestone, we are reminded of the journey that has shaped our company and the lessons learned along the way.

Founder and President Jason Schenker shared heartfelt insights about the transformative impact of starting and growing Prestige Economics.

Reflecting on Prestige Economics' journey, what fills me with the most pride is our unwavering perseverance. Celebrating our 15th anniversary is both exciting and immensely rewarding.”

Jason Schenker, President of Prestige Economics

#1 - Learning to Run a Business

“Before starting Prestige Economics, I had diverse experiences as an investment banker, economist, consultant, and analyst. However, running a business required a new set of skills, from selling and pricing products to managing a large team and ensuring financial profitability. These were crucial lessons, and while I wish I had learned them more quickly, they have been invaluable.”

#2 - The Virtue of Patience

“As an ambitious individual, patience was not my strong suit in my early career. Launching a business, especially with a self-funded runway, demanded patience. Despite initial missteps, I eventually mastered the art of patience, which has become one of my most valuable attributes.”

#3 - Meeting Incredible People

“Relocating from Houston to Austin to extend the financial runway for Prestige Economics introduced me to a vibrant and inspiring community. I have had the privilege of working with remarkable individuals like Beren Carroll, Nawfal Patel, Calvin Adams, Drake Wootton, Quinn Hoinoski, and many others. Most importantly, it was in Austin that I met my wife, Ashley Schenker.”

Reflecting on the journey that began in May 2009, Jason Schenker remarked, “When I started Prestige Economics, I thought it would be just another step in my career. But I was wrong in the best ways possible. Starting this company has shaped my capabilities, my thinking, my friendships, and even my family.”

Prestige Economics’ journey has not been without challenges, but the unwavering commitment to excellence and the determination to never give up have been the cornerstones of our success.

As we celebrate 15 years of Prestige Economics, we look forward to the future with excitement and anticipation. Here’s to the next 15 years and beyond!
