Growth Driver Of The Diabetic Retinopathy Market

The rising prevalence of diabetes is expected to propel the growth of the diabetic retinopathy market going forward. Diabetes refers to a long-term metabolic disease that causes high blood glucose levels. The rise in the prevalence of diabetes is mainly driven by overweight, obesity, genetics, and physical inactivity, whereas patients with diabetes have too much sugar in their blood, which can damage the retina, which is part of the eye that detects light and sends signals to your brain through a nerve in the back of eye.

Diabetic Retinopathy Market Definition

Diabetic retinopathy is an eye condition that can lead to blindness and vision loss in people with diabetes, affecting blood vessels in the retina and the light-sensitive tissue layer in the back of the eye. It commonly causes diabetic macular edema (DME) and neovascular glaucoma. The main diabetic retinopathy types are proliferative diabetic retinopathy, and non-proliferative diabetic retinopathy. Proliferative diabetic retinopathy refers to the advanced stage in which aberrant new blood vessels develop on the retina's surface. The various treatment methods are anti-vegf drugs, intraocular steroid injection, laser photocoagulation, and vitreoretinal surgery used in hospitals, ambulatory surgical centers, and others.
