Sponsorship/donation opportunities are also open for businesses looking to support this meaningful cause.

Jennifer Tracy, Founder of the Kahuna Cares Foundation, shared her inspiration behind the event: "The 'KAHUNA CONCERT FOR A CAUSE' not only raises essential funds for individuals with special needs but also honors my late father, THE BIG KAHUNA, Terry "Tubesteak" Tracy. His passion for supporting the special needs community continues to drive our mission."

This year, proceeds will directly benefit several impactful organizations:

Surfers Healing: Providing surf camps for children with autism.

Lobo Elementary School: Funding an all-inclusive playground for children of all abilities.

Together As One: Promoting inclusion through resources and programs for families affected by autism.

ATP San Juan Capistrano: Supporting transition programs for young adults with developmental disabilities.

Terry "Tubesteak" Tracy was not only a surfing icon but also a dedicated advocate for children with special needs, featured prominently in media and revered for his contributions to the surfing community.

The Kahuna Cares Foundation, established by Jennifer Tracy, continues Terry Tracy's legacy of love and compassion for the special needs community through impactful initiatives and events like the "KAHUNA CONCERT FOR A CAUSE."
