

Functional Health Center of the Carolinas: Clinches a 2024 Best of South Carolina Award

FORT MILL, SOUTH CAROLINA , UNITED STATES, July 25, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Functional Health Center of the Carolinas, under the visionary leadership of Dr. Corey Riser and his medical team, which includes Nurse Practitioners Chelsey Leveling and Lauren Lewis, Nutritionist Meghan Tomlinson, and Patient Care Coordinator Bri Streeter, has earned a 2024 Best of South Carolina Award. This accolade, voted by South Carolina residents, shines a spotlight on the center's commitment to transforming lives through Functional Medicine and Primary Care.

Dr. Riser's journey into functional medicine began nearly a decade ago. With over 300 hours of post-doctoral education in Functional Endocrinology and Clinical Nutrition, his expertise has positioned the center as a cutting-edge provider in North and South Carolina. But beyond the impressive credentials and advanced treatments, it's the stories of hope and recovery that truly define the center's impact.

Functional Health Center of the Carolinas specializes in treating chronic conditions such as Type II Diabetes, Hypothyroidism, Cognitive Decline, Obesity, Chronic Fatigue, and Autoimmune diseases. Their holistic approach focuses on the underlying causes of these conditions, promoting optimum health and disease reversal. This patient-centered philosophy has earned them a loyal following and now, the recognition as the Best of South Carolina.

"Our mission is to provide a message of hope to our community," Dr. Riser shares. "We combine unparalleled treatment methods with extensive knowledge to give our patients the care they need and deserve."

Winning the Best of South Carolina Award is a testament to the center's unwavering commitment to excellence. The award, part of the larger guide to South Carolina, celebrates businesses that make significant contributions to their communities. It's not just about being the best in the industry; it's about making a real difference in people's lives.

Patients at the Functional Health Center of the Carolinas are not just numbers; they are individuals with unique stories and needs. This personal touch is reflected in the heartfelt testimonials and the trust they have earned from the community. From innovative treatments to compassionate care, every aspect of the center is designed to support and uplift.

For those seeking a beacon of hope in dealing with chronic symptoms that seem to only be ignored by their conventional doctor, Functional Health Center of the Carolinas stands out as a guiding light. Their recent accolade as the Best of South Carolina is not just an award; it's a celebration of the countless lives they have touched and the community they continue to inspire.

In a region known for its hospitality and resilience, the Functional Health Center of the Carolinas exemplifies the entrepreneurial spirit that drives America forward. They are not just a healthcare provider; they are a testament to what can be achieved when passion meets purpose.
