excitement about this year's event, stating, "The European Hotel Awards 2024 will be a great vintage with high-quality winners and some of the best in Europe." His words reflect the anticipation and high standards associated with these awards, promising an evening that will highlight the pinnacle of European hospitality.

A Gathering of the Hospitality Elite

This year's awards will see the gathering of the Gotha of the European hospitality industry. From celebrated hoteliers to visionary general managers, the event will host key players who have significantly contributed to the industry's growth and excellence. It's an opportunity for networking, sharing best practices, and celebrating the achievements of peers in a highly competitive field.

Highlighting the Best Hotels and Managers

The European Hotel Awards are renowned for their rigorous selection process, ensuring that only the most deserving candidates receive recognition. Categories include:

- Best Luxury Hotel
- Best Boutique Hotel
- Best Resort Hotel
- Best General Manager
- General Manager of the Year
- Historic Hotel of the Year
- Iconic Hotel of the Year
- Legend Hotel of the Year
- Corporate F&B of the Year
- Green Award Hotel of the Year (for sustainability)
- Lifetime Achievement Award
- Art of Hospitality Award
- Chef of Hotel Restaurant Award

Each category aims to acknowledge hotels and managers who have demonstrated outstanding service, innovation, and dedication to their guests. The awards are not just a testament to the winners' hard work but also serve as a benchmark for the industry.

Michel Stalport's Vision

Under the leadership of Michel Stalport, the European Hotel Awards have continued to grow in stature and significance. Stalport's vision for the 2024 awards is one of inclusivity and excellence, ensuring that the awards recognize both established giants of the industry and emerging talents. His commitment to maintaining the highest standards ensures that the awards remain a true reflection of the best in European hospitality.

Words from Radisson Collection Royal Copenhagen General Manager

Niklas Jonsson, General Manager of the Radisson Collection Royal Copenhagen, shared his enthusiasm for hosting the event: "We are honored to welcome this prestigious event to our city of Copenhagen and our historic Radisson hotel. Our hotel is the world's first design hotel and the only hotel by renowned designer and architect Arne Jacobsen, making it the true home of Danish modernism. It's a privilege to host an event that celebrates the finest in European hospitality in a setting that embodies design excellence and innovation."

Why Copenhagen?

Copenhagen is a city known for its rich history, vibrant culture, and commitment to sustainability—attributes that align perfectly with the values of the European Hotel Awards. The Radisson Collection Royal Hotel, with its timeless elegance and impeccable service, provides an ideal setting for the event. Guests will not only enjoy the awards ceremony but also the opportunity to explore one of Europe's most enchanting cities.

Anticipation and Excitement

As the date approaches, the excitement surrounding the European Hotel Awards 2024 continues to build. Nominees are eagerly awaiting the results, and the industry is abuzz with speculation about this year's winners. The awards ceremony will not only highlight individual and collective achievements but also set the tone for the future of European hospitality.

A Night to Remember

The European Hotel Awards 2024 promises to be an unforgettable evening. Guests will enjoy a lavish dinner, world-class entertainment, and the opportunity to celebrate with industry peers. The event will culminate in the awards presentation, where the winners will be announced and celebrated for their contributions to the industry.
