“We urge everyone to pray for our country during this time and for the family of the attendee who was killed and the two people who were wounded,” Wommack said. In particular, the Ministry invites all Americans to pray for the safety of all the Presidential candidates, and that no further violence occurs.

Also, Americans are invited to pray that law enforcement will speedily find all relevant information about this incident and eliminate any future risk of violence. Finally, the Ministry asks that we all pray that Americans will return to civil political discourse.

"Americans once again need to unite around faith in God and the biblical principles in the Declaration of Independence," Wommack declared.

The Ministry would like to remind the Nation that violence is not the answer to our disagreements, and that our hope must be in the Lord. God promised Abraham thousand of years ago, "I will be thy shield and thy exceeding great reward." (Genesis 15:1). Like Abraham, we can be confident that, as we follow the Lord, he will bless and protect us, both as individuals and as a nation.
