

Rachel Pastrama Urges Enforcement of Existing Custody Order to Address Custodial Interference

Rachel Pastrama Calls for Legal Adjustments to Improve Response to Custodial Interference

CANYON COUNTY, IDAHO, USA, July 16, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Rachel Pastrama, a resident of Las Vegas, Nevada, has formally requested that authorities in Canyon and Ada Counties, Idaho, enforce an existing custody order. This order, allegedly ignored by her ex-husband, has led to a separation from her two children for nearly seven months. The request is based on Idaho Code § 18-4506, which considers custodial interference a punishable offense.

In July 2023, legal complexities arose when her ex-husband initiated a custody claim in Canyon County (Case No. CV14-23-00705), involving accusations of unauthorized COERCION INTIMIDATION: AND THREATS: Making the partner afraid Making and/or carrying by using threats, looks, and gestures. Destroying out threats to do something to hurt the the partner's property.

Abusing pets. Wielding partner. Threatening to leave the partner or weapons or kitchen report the person to implements. welfare. Threatening to make a false GENDER PRIVILEGE: EMOTION BUSE: Treating the partner like a servant down. Humiliating acting like the "king or queen of Putting him the person the castle." Being the one to define POWER the partner's roles. Making a false sibility for one's own iculing the partner's AND CONTROL ECONOMIC ABUSE: OLATION: Controlling what he or she does, who the partner sees and talks to, Preventing the partner from getting a job, or demanding the partner work longer hours or get a second job. what he or she reads, and where the Making the partner ask for money Not letting the partner have partner goes. Limiting the partner's outside activities. Using jealousy to USING DENYING cess to family income justify actions. CHILDREN: MINIMIZ Making the partner AND B MING: feel guilty about the Making the abuse children. Criticizing ing his or her And r the partner in front seriously. Saying the of the children. idn't happen. Shifting Telling the children the partner doesn't love them. Interfering with visitation. Rachel Pastrama urges Canyon and Ada County Idaho authorities to enforce an order against custodial interference.

international travel and the suspected illegal acquisition of a passport for one of their children through forged documents.

Rachel Pastrama suggests several adjustments to existing legal procedures:

Enhanced Law Enforcement Training: Recommends training for officers to recognize and effectively enforce custodial interference cases.

Streamlined Legal Processes: Advocates for the acceleration of legal proceedings for parents seeking emergency custody orders.

Expanded Support Services: Calls for increased legal and psychological support for parents and children involved in custody disputes.

These suggestions aim to refine the handling of similar cases and improve the judicial response to custodial disputes.

Rachel Pastrama is actively pursuing the enforcement of her custody rights and seeks broader adjustments to improve the efficiency and responsiveness of the legal system in custodial interference cases.

For additional information or to support Rachel Pastrama's cause, please contact:

Jeffrey Ian Shaner, Attorney at Law Jeffrey Ian Shaner, LTD. email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: https://www.einpresswire.com/article/727589166
EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2024 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.