As the demand for high-quality, natural, and traceable ingredients in pet foods continues to soar, these 5-star rated pet Kibble+ categories from Open Farm - who just garnered a B Corp Certification - consistently deliver on every front, and these latest nutrient-dense recipes are no exception, providing optimal taste and nutrition for dogs and cats of all sizes and life stages.

Open Farm's latest RawMix Tide & Terrain and Large Breed Recipes

"We're excited to get these expertly developed recipes into bowls everywhere, each packed with dependable, clean ingredients that pet parents can feel amazing about," said Jacqueline Prehogan, Co-founder of Open Farm.

Just like they do for their own food, more than half of pet parents are now actively checking ingredient lists for nutritional value, health benefits, and ecological impact (SOURCE: GlobalPets). Open Farm knows how much that matters to their community, and they're thrilled to announce a roundup of all the latest recipes joining their growing portfolio of premium, responsibly-sourced pet foods:

Open Farm is excited to announce our latest RawMix Tide & Terrain and Large Breed recipes for dogs, available in both grain and legume-free, as well as ancient grains options. These four new recipes feature a blend of wild Alaskan pollock, grass-fed beef, and wild-caught salmon, ensuring a delicious and nutrient-rich meal that pets will love.

The Large Breed recipes include humanely raised chicken and turkey, along with wild-caught salmon. Each recipe starts with a rich blend of meats forming the base kibble, which is then coated with our own Freeze-Dried Raw and Bone Broth and mixed with Freeze-Dried Raw chunks for extra taste and raw nutrition.
