In the competitive wedding industry, brides and grooms-to-be rely on resources like WeddingWire to inform their venue selection. The Hotel achieved the highest number of stars possible in each category: quality of service, average response time, professionalism, value and flexibility.

We are thrilled to receive the highest rating on WeddingWire. Couples often tell us their wedding was the nicest they — and all their guests — have ever attended. That's always our goal.”

said Kelsey Lepore, senior catering sales manager at The Hotel.

“We are thrilled to receive the highest rating on WeddingWire for our service and spaces. Whether it's an intimate ceremony or a lavish rooftop affair, we strive to ensure every couple's wedding day is better than they imagined,” said Kelsey Lepore, senior catering sales manager at The Hotel. “Couples often tell us their wedding was the nicest they — and all their guests — have ever attended. That's always our goal.”

Several reviewers noted how The Hotel team ensured the event was stress-free for brides and grooms from the start of the process through their big day. Others cited The Hotel's above-and-beyond service, amazing food, beautiful spaces and breathtaking views.

The AAA four-diamond property also won WeddingWire Couples' Choice Awards in 2024, 2023 and 2020 for excellence in quality, service, responsiveness and professionalism.

With four ballrooms — including the Top of the 7's Ballroom with floor-to-ceiling windows for spectacular views and a rooftop terrace overlooking the University of Maryland — to tucked-away and flexible spaces, The Hotel offers a myriad of possibilities for couples.
