/EINPresswire.com/ -- On July 12, 2024, Xipo Primary School in Xiji County, Ningxia Province, celebrated a special occasion with the official launch of a school library project funded by the China International Youth Development Foundation \(IYDF\).

During the celebration ceremony, the first batch of 2,376 books was placed into the new library. This marks the 19th library project supported by China IYDF in Ningxia Province, receiving enthusiastic support from students, teachers, and parents alike.

In his speech, Xipo Primary School Principal Zhang Yuanfeng highlighted that the library addresses a long-standing issue for students in the region. Previously, due to a lack of extracurricular books, students resorted to spending their spare time playing mobile and computer games, activities that do not contribute to their healthy development. Now, with the library in operation, students can borrow a wide range of books for free during their free time, greatly enriching their knowledge base and academic perspectives.
