

Dr. Anosh Ahmed and The Anosh Inc. Foundation Respond to Rally Shooting, Announce Gun Violence Awareness Grant

Dr. Anosh Ahmed and The Anosh Inc. Foundation expresses condolences following rally shooting, announces new grant to raise gun violence awareness in Chicago.

CHICAGO, IL, July 17, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr. Anosh Ahmed and The Anosh Inc. Foundation has issued a heartfelt statement in response to the recent tragic events at a rally where former President Donald Trump was injured in a shooting.

“We offer condolences to those whose family members lost their lives during this tragic event. This was a terrible incident and a shocking moment for our democracy. Dr. Anosh Ahmed and The Anosh Inc Foundation are gratified that President Trump is reported to be okay. All politically motivated violence is to be condemned, no matter what form or what situation. I commend President Trump for his immediate display of strength following the attempted assassination and I hope he will soon be back in front of the American people. Anosh Inc Foundation prays for those impacted by today’s events and for our collective peace as a Nation.”

In light of these events, The Anosh Inc Foundation is launching a new grant program aimed at creating awareness about gun violence in the Austin Neighborhood on the Westside of Chicago, close to Loretto Hospital. This initiative reflects the Foundation’s ongoing commitment to addressing critical issues within the community and promoting a safer environment for all.
