For guests who plan their trips around the latest food and wine, The Houstonian Hotel, Club & Spa provides countless ways to savor a delicious gastronomic experience. Guests can start at The Bar & Patio to try one of Houston's best margaritas before heading to TRIBUTE, the hotel's on property restaurant, known for delicious dishes highlighting the flavors of Texas, Mexico, and Louisiana. TRIBUTE offers an extensive wine and spirits menu, and guests who want to make their dining experience extra special can reserve a table in the restaurant's wine room to dine surrounded by thousands of bottles of wine. The hotel also features poolside dining at Arbor Grill and healthy fare at The Kitchen at The Houstonian Club.

Guests have even more to savor this summer, with three events centered around great food and wine. Sangria Social Soirees are offered every Thursday at The Bar & Patio, where they can enjoy red, white peach, and rose sangria from 3 to 10 pm. Prime Rib Fridays feature smoked Painted Hills prime rib and delectable side dishes at TRIBUTE. On July 25, guests can indulge in an exclusive three-course meal featuring wine from Napa Valley's notable Cakebread Winery. Dennis Cakebread will be on hand to discuss the winery's 50-year evolution. Visitors can enjoy a three-course meal with wine paring while enjoying 2004 cult classic film, Sideways during the hotel's Dinner and Movie Night on July 26 or vote for their favorite champagne during Battle of the Bubbles Tasting and Brunch on August 18.

Currently, The Houstonian Hotel, Club & Spa is offering the Summer Hideaway package. This exclusive package includes special rates, complimentary margaritas, free self-parking, and no resort fees. It's the perfect opportunity to book a staycation in one of the hotel's newly renovated guest rooms, featuring sumptuous custom bedding, and panoramic wooded views.
