AGA Benefit Solutions has a team of more than 20 actuaries able to carry out in-depth analysis, a network of external brokers across Canada, and is one of Canada's leading third-party administrators and third-party claims

payer (TPA/TPP).

"We're thrilled to be selected as a BAN member. We are highly dedicated to innovation and customized group insurance and retirement programs and see membership in BAN as one way to help us deliver high quality, valuable services," says Martin Papillon, President and CEO, AGA Benefits Solutions.

Continues Papillon, "We believe the business planning tools and client resources BAN offers will enhance our firm's continued growth and enhance the value proposition for our clients. We appreciate the high-quality resources that BAN membership adds to the arsenal of customer solutions that we already provide to our clients, especially for their cross border needs in the United States.”

To become a BAN member, AGA Benefit Solutions had to pass a stringent screening process that included interacting with BAN’s members and its Board, and scrutiny of the firm’s business ethics, industry knowledge, and commitment to providing the highest quality services.

“We are proud to welcome Martin and his team into BAN,” says Perry Braun, President & CEO of the Benefit Advisors Network. “AGA Benefit Solutions prides themselves on being strategic and innovative problem-solvers, partnering with clients to develop appropriate, affordable, and flexible solutions for their employee benefit programs – this is exactly the type of member that makes BAN the international organization it is today.”

BAN intentionally limits membership to the “best of the best” in their respective markets. The organizational philosophy of collaboration while providing world-class resources, such as preferred pricing arrangements and direct access to underwriters, has helped its members continue to grow.
