

Baby Blendy's Sippy Cup Conversion Kit Now Available

The product offers a seamless way to transform Baby Blendy bottles into spill-proof sippy cups.

MIAMI LAKES, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, July 17, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Baby Blendy, a leader in baby feeding solutions, is excited to announce the launch of its new Sippy Cup Conversion Kit. This innovative kit transforms Baby Blendy's anti-colic bottles into sippy cups, making it easier for older babies to transition from bottles to cups.

The Sippy Cup Conversion Kit includes a sippy cup nipple and grip handles that easily snap onto Baby Blendy's bottles. The nipple is made from soft, food-grade silicone and is designed to be gentle on gums. The grip handles are made from a non-slip material that is easy for little hands to hold.

Key Features of the Sippy Cup Conversion Kit:

- Easy to use: Simply snap the nipple and grip handles onto the bottle.
- Easy to clean: The nipple and grip handles can be washed in the dishwasher.
- Easy to grip: The non-slip grip handles make it easy for babies to hold the bottle.
- Designed for little hands: The nipple and grip handles are sized for small hands.
- Handles go on, up or down: You can customize the way the handles are positioned on the bottle.
- Fits 6oz, 8oz & 10oz Bottles: The kit fits all three sizes of Baby Blendy bottles.
- Blendy Handles Sold Separately: The kit includes the sippy cup nipple and grip handles. The Baby Blendy bottles are sold separately.

- Sippy Spout Nipple Sold Separately: The sippy cup nipple is sold separately.

Benefits of the Sippy Cup Conversion Kit:

- Makes it easier for babies to transition from bottles to cups.
- Reduces spills and messes.
- Helps babies develop their fine motor skills.
- Promotes independent feeding.

Compatible with Baby Blendy's 6oz, 8oz, and 10oz bottles, the Sippy Cup Conversion Kit features a snap-on design for effortless assembly and disassembly, making cleaning a breeze. The non-slip grip handles are thoughtfully crafted for little hands, promoting confidence and independence during feeding time.

"Our Sippy Cup Conversion Kit reflects Baby Blendy's commitment to enhancing the feeding experience for families," said Mr. Osmay Gonzalez, Spokesperson for Baby Blendy. "It's designed to support babies' development while providing a convenient solution for parents."

The kit is part of Baby Blendy's comprehensive range of products aimed at reducing discomfort associated with colic and reflux. Engineered with quality and safety in mind, it aligns with the company's mission to redefine baby feeding through innovation and practicality.

In addition to the Sippy Cup Conversion Kit, Baby Blendy offers a range of anti-colic baby bottles designed to minimize air intake, reducing post-feeding discomforts. The bottles feature a unique built-in mixer that blends formula and cereals thoroughly, ensuring babies receive essential nutrients without swallowing excess air.

As a special offer, Baby Blendy provides free 3-day shipping on orders over $45, allowing customers nationwide to enjoy fast and reliable delivery of their baby feeding essentials.

Recognized for its innovation and impact in the industry, Baby Blendy has been honored with prestigious awards, including the Parents Pick Award, Family's Choice Award, A'Design Award, and Baby Maternity Magazine Award. These accolades underscore Baby Blendy's commitment to excellence and customer satisfaction.
