Meet Dr. Annmarie Waite

Dr. Annmarie Waite, Ph.D., brings over three decades of extensive experience in nursing to this collaborative project. Holding a Doctor of Philosophy in nursing, her expertise spans healthcare provision, research, and education, with a particular focus on the well-being of women, children, and families.

Throughout her illustrious career, Dr. Waite has been a tireless advocate for health promotion, addressing critical issues such as cardiovascular health and mental well-being. Her pioneering research on the role of nurse practitioners in independent practice has not only propelled the nursing profession forward but has also significantly improved healthcare outcomes for individuals nationwide.

As President and CEO of Girlfriends Health PLC and the nonprofit organization Girlfriends Guild, Inc., Dr. Waite has dedicated herself to advancing the health and social welfare of women, children, and families through various healthcare initiatives and community outreach programs.

From providing care to babies born with AIDS to conducting examinations for physically abused children and sexually assaulted women, Dr. Waite's commitment to healthcare knows no bounds. Her expertise in women's health, child abuse, and pre- and post-natal care underscores her invaluable contributions to these critical areas.

Driven by a vision of empowerment and holistic well-being, Dr. Waite established Girlfriends Health, to provide essential resources, educational materials, and counseling support to women seeking to enhance their physical, emotional, and mental health.

With a background that includes roles as a Registered Nurse in Pediatrics, Advanced Registered Nurse Practitioner (ARNP), Professor, Nursing Administrator, Child Protection Team Medical Examiner, and Sexual Assault Examiner, Dr. Waite's diverse experiences continue to shape and elevate the nursing profession and healthcare landscape as a whole.
