"Having the platform to interview industry professionals live at this prestigious event is an unparalleled honor and tremendous opportunity," said Ashleigh Barry. "I'm excited to be facilitating dynamic conversations as Nordic Funds & Mines brings together the global mining ecosystem in the heart of mining's finance capital. This event provides an exceptional platform for investors and miners to connect, collaborate, and drive the industry forward."

The exclusive live interviews will be featured on the Stocks To Watch's YouTube channel

Bastien Boulay, CEO of Global One Media, commented: "Nordic Funds & Mines 2024 presents an excellent opportunity for our media team to connect with an extensive network of European retail and institutional investors, family offices, high-net-worth individuals, and mining leaders from Scandinavia and across Europe. This event significantly expands our reach, providing greater visibility to our Stocks To Watch and InvestorTV platforms. We're thrilled to engage with the Scandinavian investment community and contribute to the dialogue shaping the future of the mining industry."

Global One Media's participation in this event aligns with its mission to provide investors with free, high-quality investment insights and financial content. By attending Nordic Funds & Mines 2024 in Sweden, Global One Media continues to bridge the gap between emerging companies and the investment community, fostering transparency and informed decision-making in the capital markets.
