announced the launch of their newly redesigned website, which went live on June 15th, 2024. The new changes reflect HQ Custom Design's continuous efforts to provide their clients with a seamless online journey.

A notable improvement to the website is its sleek and modern design. The new aesthetic aligns with HQ Custom Design's brand identity, focusing on luxury, innovation, and high-quality craftsmanship. The design overhaul ensures that visitors to the site are met with a visually appealing interface that is both engaging and informative.

The homepage features high-resolution images, showcasing the breadth and quality of their custom van conversions. These visuals allow potential clients to quickly grasp the level of detail and excellence that goes into every vehicle.

The revamped website significantly enhances the user experience by making it easier for visitors to find the information they need. With intuitive navigation and a streamlined layout, users can effortlessly explore the various services provided by HQ Custom Design.

The site's structure has been optimized to ensure that all critical information is just a few clicks away. Whether a visitor is looking for details on luxury conversions, wheelchair-accessible vehicles, shuttle buses, or commercial vans, they can quickly and easily access the relevant sections.

HQ Custom Design has also simplified the website's menus to improve usability. The new menu layout is clean and organized. It provides a clear pathway to the different types of conversions and services available. This change helps reduce the time users spend searching for information, enhancing overall satisfaction.

About HQ Custom Design

HQ Custom Design is a family-owned and operated business based in Northern New Jersey. They have been specializing in custom van and SUV conversions for the last 30 years. Since 1994, HQ Custom Design has been known for their commitment to excellence and innovation in creating vehicles that push beyond conventional limits.

The experienced team at HQ Custom Design customizes a wide range of vans and SUVs, including luxury-end builds, wheelchair-accessible vehicles, shuttle buses, and conversions for both personal and professional use. They embrace all kinds of concepts and unconventional projects to deliver one-of-a-kind custom vehicles that meet their clients' unique needs.
