The glittering ceremony, held at the Westminster Park Plaza Hotel in London, saw Managing Director Nick Marks and nine team members representing Baldwins Travel. The team was ecstatic to receive both the Regional and National Awards, celebrating their hard work and dedication.

We are thrilled to have won these awards not only for our region but also at a national level. These awards are a testament to the hard work and dedication of all our team.”

Nick Marks expressed his joy, saying, “We are thrilled to have won these awards not only for our region but also at a national level. We are passionate about travel, expanding our high street presence in the last 10 months with new branches open in Haywards Heath, Westerham, and Grantham! The awards are a testament to the hard work and dedication of ALL our team. Winning these coveted awards is truly amazing, and these awards are wholly theirs.”

The Travel Weekly Agent Achievement Awards are the largest celebration of the travel trade in the UK & Ireland and the highest accolade for travel agencies and agents. Designed to honour those who represent the best of the travel industry, the awards recognise excellence across a range of categories and specialisms.

The glamorous awards ceremony was attended by over 700 guests and hosted by radio and television favourite Jordan North, alongside Travel Weekly editor-in-chief Lucy Huxley. The event, held in association with headline sponsor Celestyal, saw winners selected through votes from travel industry suppliers, including tour operators, airlines, cruise lines, and tourist boards, with some categories decided by panels of expert judges.

Travel Weekly is the market-leading multimedia company and magazine for the UK travel industry, with a significant presence in print, online, and through a portfolio of events.
