Covid-19 Scenario:

The outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic had a negative impact on the growth of the global DIY home décor market, owing to the implementation of global lockdown which resulted in the temporary closure of production facilities, especially during the initial period. Supply chain was disrupted due to import & export restrictions. Manufacturers faced shortage of labor and unavailability of raw materials. However, manufacturers focused more on social media advertisement to reach a large consumer base. Also, a rise in penetration of online sales channels boosted the growth of the market.
