Rising Demand for Bakery Products Drives Market Growth
The rising demand for bakery products is significantly contributing to the growth of the countertop warmers and display cases market. Bakery products, such as bread, cakes, pastries, and cookies, require optimal temperature and humidity to maintain freshness and appeal. The increasing consumer preference for artisanal goods and advancements in baking technology are further fueling demand. For example, in April 2023, Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada reported that the Canadian retail market for baked goods was valued at $6.5 billion in 2021, with expectations to grow to $6.7 billion. This rising demand for bakery products is driving the growth of countertop warmers and display cases by enhancing product presentation and protecting food quality.
