

Anime Park 'Nijigen no Mori' and 'Monster Hunter' Collaboration: 'MONSTER HUNTER THE FIELD' Opens July 27th!

Nijigen no Mori announces "MONSTER HUNTER THE FIELD in Nijigen no Mori", a new collaboration with 'Monster Hunter', opening July 27th.

AWAJI CITY, HYOGO PREFECTURE, JAPAN, July 22, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Anime theme park "Nijigen no Mori" (Awaji Island, Hyogo Prefecture) has announced a new attraction in collaboration with the hunting action game "Monster Hunter", titled "MONSTER HUNTER THE FIELD in Nijigen no Mori", opening Saturday, July 27th for a limited period.

Tickets for the attraction are available for purchase through the Nijigen no Mori official homepage (<https://nijigennomori.com/en/>), starting Monday, July 22nd.

Visitors to the attraction inhabit the role of novice hunters arriving at "Awaji Assembly Hall", undergoing training to become skillful hunters.

Training quests challenge hunters with "Field Research" and "Large Monster Suppression". As preparation for "Large Monster Suppression", "Field Research" tasks hunters with searching for vital items located in item boxes scattered throughout the roughly 130,000 m2 area, and scouting "Palicoes" to help subjugate monsters. In "Large Monster Suppression", hunters choose a weapon to subdue a fire wyvern "Rathalos". Participants use action controllers and tracking devices to square off against on-screen monsters in the suppression area. Accumulating victories over large monsters will improve participants' "Hunter Rank", unleashing new monsters to defeat.

Limited-edition collaboration goods and food from the world of Monster Hunter will be available for purchase during the event.
