BE YOUR OWN PARADE

Be Your Own Parade: Amzie Adams has been an integral part of the art scene in New Orleans for nearly sixty years

About Amzie Adams:

Amzie arrived in New Orleans sometime in the 1960s and has called it home ever since. An internationally recognized painter, musician, poet, and performance artist, Amzie can often be seen in and around the French Quarter and Faubourg Marigny wearing his trademark top hat, white beard, and custom-made clothing.

Over the years he has been a subject for the documentary project The American Experience for PBS, interviewed for the New Orleans Historic Collection, and the focus of countless articles about New Orleans. His work is the pride of many private collections.

Join Us:

Don't miss this extraordinary opportunity to immerse yourself in Amzie Adams' artistic journey. Whether you're an art enthusiast or simply curious, stop by "All Amzie All The Time" and experience the magic of New Orleans through Amzie's eyes.
