Texas Cannabis Roundup Research Dinner Announced

DALLAS, TX, US, July 22, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Healthway Education Systems, a leading provider of educational resources on cannabinoids for healthcare providers and regulators, is proud to announce the Texas Cannabis Roundup Research Dinner. This event will be held at the Texas Steakhouse in Richardson on July 31st from 6:30 – 8:30.

The Texas Cannabis Roundup Research Dinner will bring together leading researchers, medical professionals, and industry experts to discuss the latest findings on cannabis research and conduct impactful networking. The dinner takes place after Healthway's continuing education (CE) class earlier in the day.

The traditional Cannabis industry often forgets the legitimate medicinal benefits of the plant and we're happy to create a space to emphasize the therapeutic properties the plant helps with.”

Daulton O'Neill

“We are excited to participate in this inaugural gathering,” said Andrea Sallis, founder of Healthway Education Systems. “The Texas Cannabis Roundup Research Dinner will provide a platform for open and honest discussion about cannabis research, and its potential to improve the quality of life of patients and everyday consumers.”

“Adding this event into the Roundup schedule is huge for our north Texas medical community. The traditional Cannabis industry often forgets the legitimate medicinal benefits of the plant and we're happy to create a space to emphasize the therapeutic properties the plant helps with.” – Daulton O'Neill, Founder of The Texas Cannabis Roundup

The Texas Cannabis Roundup Research Dinner will feature comments from:

Dr. Antonio Rozier
Dr. Bridget Cole Williams
Andrea Sallis
