This longer-duration product is designed for clients seeking strong accumulation potential and could be a strategic option to address future income gaps.

URBANDALE, IA, 50322, July 22, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Revol One Financial, a leading innovator in the fixed annuity industry, unleashes a new fixed index annuity (FIA) product: the Enduris 10 FIA™. This longer-duration product is designed for clients seeking strong accumulation potential and could be a strategic option to address future income gaps.

Enduris 10 FIA™ stands out in the industry, boasting a Best Entry feature which offers protection against significant early downward index movement. If the initial index value used to calculate performance declines significantly shortly after issue, the annuity automatically adjusts the index starting value to a new lower level, enhancing growth potential. Plus, enhanced participation indexed interest options provide the potential to capture a greater growth percentage if the index performs well during the option term.
